the pointer
for all educators and parents of exceptional children

Annual Index
Volume 28, 1983/1984

AUTHORS and TITLES

Barth, Richard
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Winter (2)

Behrmann, Michael M.
A Brighter Future for Early Learning Through High Tech, Winter (2)

Blumsack, Kathryn F.
Matching Inservice Courses to Needs of Adult Learners, Fall (1)

Cain, Edward J., Jr.
The Role of the Computer in Special Education: Some Philosophical Considerations, Winter (2)

Cole, Don, and David Dempsey
Little Girl with a Big Heart, Spring (3)

Eagan, Ann, and Mary Alice Wilson
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know?, Winter (2)

Etscheidt, Susan, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Summer (4)

Fagen, Stanley A.
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Summer (4)

Fagen, Stanley A., and Staff of Inservice Training Unit
Facilitating Teacher Growth through Visits to Exemplary Programs: The Demonstration-Training Classrooms Project, Fall (1)

Fagen, Stanley A., and Jan Wintrol
Strategies for Successful Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Fall (1)

Hagen, Dolores
Jason says "YES", Winter (2)

Hargrove, Patricia M.
Common Misconceptions About Language-Impaired Children, Spring (3)

Hart, Laura, Jeffery M. Hill, Sharon Healy, and Stanley A. Fagen
Objectives and Types of Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Fall (1)

Healy, Sharon
Planning Inservice Programs, Fall (1)

Hill, Jeffery M.
Promoting Awareness of Handicaps through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Fall (1)

Holler, Bernard
Self-Correcting Calendar, Spring (3)

Kimeldorf, Martin, and Janice A. Tornow
Job Clubs: Getting into the Hidden Labor Market, Spring (3)

Leyser, Yona
Educational Puppetry: A Valuable Instructional Resource in Regular and Special Education, Spring (3)

Long, Nicholas J.
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Summer (4)

MacArthur, Charles
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Winter (2)

McCaslin, Pamela S., and Linda B. Stevens
Immediate Openings, Winter (2)

McGinnis, Ellen
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Summer (4)

McLoughlin, James, Susan Kershman, and Anne Netick
Parents and Teachers of Young Exceptional Children: Meeting Training Needs, Spring (3)

Nevin, Ann, Chris Polewski, and Eric Skieber
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Spring (3)

Powell, Diane E.
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Summer (4)

Ray, Rose
A Process for Selecting, Training, and Evaluating Inservice Instructors, Fall (1)

Reister, Albert E.
Teaching the Emotionally Disturbed Student, Spring (3)

the pointer
for all educators and parents of exceptional children

Annual Index
Volume 28, 1983/1984

AUTHORS and TITLES

Barth, Richard
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Winter (2)

Behrmann, Michael M.
A Brighter Future for Early Learning Through High Tech, Winter (2)

Blumsack, Kathryn F.
Matching Inservice Courses to Needs of Adult Learners, Fall (1)

Cain, Edward J., Jr.
The Role of the Computer in Special Education: Some Philosophical Considerations, Winter (2)

Cole, Don, and David Dempsey
Little Girl with a Big Heart, Spring (3)

Eagan, Ann, and Mary Alice Wilson
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know?, Winter (2)

Etscheidt, Susan, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Summer (4)

Fagen, Stanley A.
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Summer (4)

Fagen, Stanley A., and Staff of Inservice Training Unit
Facilitating Teacher Growth through Visits to Exemplary Programs: The Demonstration-Training Classrooms Project, Fall (1)

Fagen, Stanley A., and Jan Wintrol
Strategies for Successful Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Fall (1)

Hagen, Dolores
Jason says "YES", Winter (2)

Hargrove, Patricia M.
Common Misconceptions About Language-Impaired Children, Spring (3)

Hart, Laura, Jeffery M. Hill, Sharon Healy, and Stanley A. Fagen
Objectives and Types of Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Fall (1)

Healy, Sharon
Planning Inservice Programs, Fall (1)

Hill, Jeffery M.
Promoting Awareness of Handicaps through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Fall (1)

Holler, Bernard
Self-Correcting Calendar, Spring (3)

Kimeldorf, Martin, and Janice A. Tornow
Job Clubs: Getting into the Hidden Labor Market, Spring (3)

Leyser, Yona
Educational Puppetry: A Valuable Instructional Resource in Regular and Special Education, Spring (3)

Long, Nicholas J.
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Summer (4)

MacArthur, Charles
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Winter (2)

McCaslin, Pamela S., and Linda B. Stevens
Immediate Openings, Winter (2)

McGinnis, Ellen
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Summer (4)

McLoughlin, James, Susan Kershman, and Anne Netick
Parents and Teachers of Young Exceptional Children: Meeting Training Needs, Spring (3)

Nevin, Ann, Chris Polewski, and Eric Skieber
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Spring (3)

Powell, Diane E.
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Summer (4)

Ray, Rose
A Process for Selecting, Training, and Evaluating Inservice Instructors, Fall (1)

Reister, Albert E.
Teaching the Emotionally Disturbed Student, Spring (3)

Rezmierski, Virginia
Impulse Control: Stages and Interventions, Summer (4)

Ring, Barbara C.
Academic Assessment of the Indochinese Child, Spring (3)

Roberge, Myrna
An Individualized Projects Model for Inservice Training, Fall (1)

Ruconich, Sandra
Evaluating Microcomputer Access Technology for Use by Visually Impaired Students, Winter (2)

Russell, Tommy
Respite Care—A Means of Rest and Recuperation for Parents of Retarded Individuals, Spring (3)

Salend, Spencer
Selecting and Evaluating Educational Assessment Instruments, Winter (2)

Salend, Spencer, and Suzanne Salend
Consulting with the Regular Teacher: Guidelines for Special Educators, Spring (3)

Taymans, Juliana, and David Malouf
A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Winter (2)

Tessier-Switlick, Diane, Stanley A. Fagen, and Nancy B. Mann
School Inservice Coordinator for Mainstreaming Program: A School-Based Model, Fall (1)

Thompson, Diana
Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Fall (1)

Wagner, Linda F.
The Talking Chart, Summer (4)

Wood, Judy W.
Adapting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Spring (3)

SUBJECT

ASSESSMENT

Selecting and Evaluating Educational Assessment Instruments, Spencer Salend, Winter (2)
Academic Assessment of the Indochinese Child, Barbara C. Ring, Spring (3)

BEHAVIOR DISORDERS

Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Impulse Control: Stages and Interventions, Virginia Rezmierski, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT

Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

COMPUTERS

Tools for Communication (Editorial), Charles (Skip) MacArthur, Winter (2)
The Role of the Computer in Special Education: Some Philosophical Considerations, Edward J. Cain, Jr., Winter (2)
A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Juliana Taymans and David Malouf, Winter (2)
Immediate Openings, Pamela S. McCaslin and Linda B. Stevens, Winter (2)
A Brighter Future for Early Learning Through High Tech, Michael M. Behrmann, Winter (2)
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know?, Ann Eagan and Mary Alice Wilson, Winter (2)
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Richard Barth, Winter (2)
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Charles (Skip) MacArthur, Winter (2)
Jason Says "Yes", Dolores Hagen, Winter (2)
Evaluating Microcomputer Access Technology for Use by Visually Impaired Students, Sandra Ruconich, Winter (2)

CONSULTATION

Consulting with the Regular Teacher: Guidelines for Special Educators, Spencer Salend and Suzanne Salend, Spring (3)

CURRICULUM

Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/ Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)

EARLY CHILDHOOD

A Brighter Future for Early Learning Through High Tech, Michael M. Behrmann, Winter (2)

EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED

Teaching the Emotionally Disturbed Student, Albert E. Reister, Spring (3)
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

FRUSTRATION

Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)

HEARING IMPAIRED

HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Richard Barth, Winter (2)

INSERVICE TRAINING

Strategies for Successful Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Stanley A. Fagen and Jan Wintrol, Fall (1)
Planning Inservice Programs, Sharon Healy, Fall (1)
Matching Inservice Courses to Needs of Adult Learners, Kathryn F. Blumsack, Fall (1)
School Inservice Coordinator for Mainstreaming Program: A School-Based Model, Diane Tessier-Switlick, Stanley A. Fagen and Nancy B. Mann, Fall (1)
Objectives and Types of Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Laura Hart, Jeffery M. Hill, Sharon Healy, and Stanley A. Fagen, Fall (1)
Promoting Awareness of Handicaps Through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Jeffery M. Hill, Fall (1)
An Individualized Projects Model for Inservice Training, Myrna Roberge, Fall (1)
A Process for Selecting, Training, and Evaluating Inservice Instructors, Rose Ray, Fall (1)
Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Diana Thompson, Fall (1)
Facilitating Teacher Growth Through Visits to Exemplary Programs: The Demonstration-Training Classrooms Project, Stanley A. Fagen and Staff of Inservice Training Unit, Fall (1)
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know?, Ann Eagan and Mary Alice Wilson, Winter (2)
Parents and Teachers of Young Exceptional Children: Meeting Training Needs, James A. McLoughlin, Susan Kershman, and Anne Netick, Spring (3)

JOBS

Job Clubs: Getting into the Hidden Labor Market, Martin Kimeldorf and Janice A. Tornow, Spring (3)

LANGUAGE IMPAIRED

Common Misconceptions About Language-Impaired Children, Patricia M. Hargrove, Spring (3)

LEARNING DISABLED

Immediate Openings, Pamela S. McCaslin and Linda B. Stevens, Winter (2)

MAINSTREAMING

Strategies for Successful Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Stanley A. Fagen and Jan Wintrol, Fall (1)
School Inservice Coordinator for Mainstreaming Program: A School-Based Model, Diane Tessier-Switlick, Stanley A. Fagen, and Nancy B. Mann, Fall (1)
Objectives and Types of Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Laura Hart, Jeffery M. Hill, Sharon Healy, and Stanley A. Fagen, Fall (1)
Promoting Awareness of Handicaps through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Jeffery M. Hill, Fall (1)
Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Diana Thompson, Fall (1)
Adapting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Judy W. Wood, Spring (3)
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Ann Nevin, Chris Polewski, and Eric Skieber, Spring (3)
Consulting with the Regular Teacher: Guidelines for Special Educators, Spencer Salend and Suzanne Salend, Spring (3)

MATERIALS

Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Diana Thompson, Fall (1)
A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Juliana Taymans and David Malouf, Winter (2)
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Charles (Skip) MacArthur, Winter (2)
Adopting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Judy W. Wood, Spring (3)
Educational Puppetry: A Valuable Instructional Resource in Regular and Special Education, Yona Leyser, Spring (3)
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

MENTALLY RETARDED

Respite Care—A Means of Rest and Recuperation for Parents of Retarded Individuals, Tommy Russell, Spring (3)
Self-Correcting Calendar, Bernard Holler, Spring (3)

PARENTS

A Brighter Future For Early Learning Through High Tech, Michael M. Behrmann, Winter (2)
Parents and Teachers of Young Exceptional Children: Meeting Training Needs, James A. McLoughlin, Susan Kershman and Anne Netick, Spring (3)
Respite Care—A Means of Rest and Recuperation for Parents of Retarded Individuals, Tommy Russell, Spring (3)

PEERS

Promoting Awareness of Handicaps Through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Jeffery M. Hill, Fall (1)
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Charles (Skip) MacArthur, Winter (2)
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Ann Nevin, Chris Polewski, and Eric Skieber, Spring (3)

PHYSICALLY IMPAIRED

Jason Says "Yes", Dolores Hagen, Winter (2)
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Richard Barth, Winter (2)
Little Girl With a Big Heart, Don Cole and David Dempsey, Spring (3)

PRINCIPAL

Strategies for Successful Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Stanley A. Fagen and Jan Wintrol, Fall (1)
Objectives and Types of Inservice Training for Mainstreaming, Laura Hart, Jeffery M. Hill, Sharon Healy, and Stanley A. Fagen, Fall (1)
Promoting Awareness of Handicaps Through Faculty-Student Immersion Programs, Jeffery M. Hill, Fall (1)
A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Juliana Taymans and David Malouf, Winter (2)
Immediate Openings, Pamela S. McCaslin and Linda B. Stevens, Winter (2)
Selecting and Evaluating Educational Assessment Instruments, Spencer Salend, Winter (2)
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Richard Barth, Winter (2)
Adapting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Judy W. Wood, Spring (3)
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Ann Nevin, Chris Polewski, and Eric Skieber, Spring (3)
Consulting with the Regular Teacher: Guidelines for Special Educators, Spencer Salend and Suzanne Salend, Spring (3)
Impulse Control: Stages and Interventions, Virginia Rezmierski, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/ Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)

PUPPETRY

Educational Puppetry: A Valuable Instructional Resource in Regular and Special Education, Yona Leyser, Spring (3)

RESPITE CARE

Respite Care—A Means of Rest and Recuperation for Parents of Retarded Individuals, Tommy Russell, Spring (3)

SELF-CONTROL

Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Impulse Control: Stages and Interventions, Virginia Rezmierski, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/ Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL INSTRUCTION

Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Impulse Control: Stages and Interventions, Virginia Rezmierski, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/ Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

SOCIAL SKILLS

Teaching Social Skills to Behavioraly Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

SOFTWARE

A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Juliana Taymans and David Malouf, Winter (2)
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know? Ann Eagan and Mary Alice Wilson, Winter (2)

TEACHER

Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Diana Thompson, Fall (1)
Facilitating Teacher Growth Through Visits to Exemplary Programs: The Demonstration-Training Classrooms Project, Stanley A. Fagen, Fall (1)
Immediate Openings, Pamela S. McCaslin and Linda B. Stevens, Winter (2)
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know?, Ann Eagan and Mary Alice Wilson, Winter (2)
Adapting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Judy W. Wood, Spring (3)
Consulting with the Regular Teacher: Guidelines for Special Educators, Spencer Salend and Suzanne Salend, Spring (3)
Parents and Teachers of Young Exceptional Children: Meeting Training Needs, James A. McLoughlin, Susan Kershman, and Anne Netick, Spring (3)
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/ Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

TEACHING STRATEGIES

Valuable Resources: Inservice Training Materials for Teachers of Students with Special Needs, Diana Thompson, Fall (1)
A Hard Look at Software in Computer-Assisted Instruction in Special Education, Juliana Taymans and David Malouf, Winter (2)
Word Processing with Students: What Does the Teacher Need to Know? Ann Eagan and Mary Alice Wilson, Winter (2)
Simulations in Remedial and Special Education, Charles (Skip) MacArthur, Winter (2)
Adapting AV for Mainstreamed Students, Judy W. Wood, Spring (3)
The Impact of Cooperative Learning in a Regular Classroom, Ann Nevin, Chris Polewski and Eric Skieber, Spring (3)
Educational Puppetry: A Valuable Instructional Resource in Regular and Special Education, Yona Leyser, Spring (3)
Self-Correcting Calendar, Bernard Holler, Spring (3)
Teaching Social Skills to Behaviorally Disordered Elementary Students, Ellen McGinnis, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control to High-Risk Students in an Urban Environment, Diane E. Powell, Summer (4)
The Talking Chart, Linda F. Wagner, Summer (4)
Integrating Frustration Management into the Language Arts/Reading Curriculum, Stanley A. Fagen, Summer (4)
The Effectiveness of Teacher Proximity as an Initial Technique of Helping Pupils Control Their Behavior, Susan Etscheidt, Susan Stainback, and William Stainback, Summer (4)
Teaching Self-Control and Pro-Social Behavior by Using Therapeutic Signs and Sayings in Classrooms for Emotionally Disturbed Pupils, Nicholas J. Long, Summer (4)

TECHNOLOGY

The Role of the Computer in Special Education: Some Philosophical Considerations, Edward J. Cain, Jr., Winter (2)
Immediate Openings, Pamela S. McCaslin and Linda B. Stevens, Winter (2)
A Brighter Future for Early Learning Through High Tech, Michael M. Behrmann, Winter (2)
HEX—The Handicapped Educational Exchange, Richard Barth, Winter (2)
Evaluating Microcomputer Access Technology for Use by Visually Impaired Students, Sandra Ruconich, Winter (2)

VISUALLY IMPAIRED

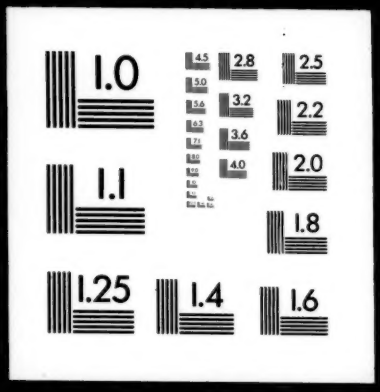
Evaluating Microcomputer Access Technology for Use by Visually Impaired Students, Sandra Ruconich, Winter (2)

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Job Clubs: Getting into the Hidden Labor Market, Martin Kimeldorf and Janice A. Tornow, Spring (3)

AUTHOR LISTING

Barth, Richard 2:32
Behrmann, Michael M. 2:23
Blumsack, Kathryn F. 1:16
Cain, Edward J., Jr. 2:6
Cole, Don 3:37
Dempsey, David 3:37
Eagan, Ann 2:27
Etscheidt, Susan 4:33
Fagen, Stanley A. 1:6, 1:19, 1:25, 1:45, 4:29
Hagen, Dolores 2:40
Hargrove, Patricia M. 3:22
Hart, Laura 1:25
Healy, Sharon 1:12, 1:25
Hill, Jeffery M. 1:25, 1:29
Holler, Bernard 3:39
Kershman, Susan 3:41
Kimeldorf, Martin 3:29
Leyser, Yona 3:33
Long, Nicholas J. 4:36
MacArthur, Charles 2:36
Malouf, David 2:12
Mann, Nancy B. 1:19
McCaslin, Pamela S. 2:16
McGinnis, Ellen 4:5
McLoughlin, James A. 3:41
Netick, Anne 3:41
Nevin, Ann 3:19
Polewski, Chris 3:19
Powell, Diane E. 4:20
Ray, Rose 1:37
Reister, Albert E. 3:13
Rezmierski, Virginia 4:13
Ring, Barbara C. 3:10
Roberge, Myrna 1:34
Ruconich, Sandra 2:44
Russell, Tommy 3:4
Salend, Spencer 2:20, 3:25
Salend, Suzanne 3:25
Skieber, Eric 3:19
Staff of Inservice Training Unit 1:45
Stainback, Susan 4:33
Stainback, William 4:33
Stevens, Linda B. 2:16
Taymans, Juliana 2:12
Tessier-Switlick, Diane 1:19
Thompson, Diana 1:41
Tornow, Janice A. 3:29
Wagner, Linda F. 4:25
Wilson, Mary Alice 2:27
Wintrol, Jan 1:6
Wood, Judy W. 3:8



1.0
1.1
1.25
1.4
1.6
2.8
3.2
3.6
4.0
2.5
2.2
2.0
1.8